workforce development board member, agree to the terms and conditions contained herein.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE LOCAL WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT BOARDS

Local workforce development board members are to provide responsible stewardship for and oversight of publicly funded workforce programs. The roles and responsibilities of the local board must be executed in a manner that demonstrates strong integrity, accountability and transparency in order to preserve the public trust. All voting and non-voting local board members and board staff are subject to the provisions of state and local conflict of interest policies.

REQUIRED ACTIVITIES

Local workforce development board members must:

- Recuse themselves from their official duties if there is a real or perceived conflict of interest
- Advise the board of any potential or perceived conflicts of interest
- Ask the local board for guidance if there is any doubt as to whether a specific situation involves or constitutes a real or perceived conflict of interest

RESTRICTED ACTIVITIES

Local workforce development board members must not:

- Cast a vote on nor participate in any decision-making capacity on the provision of services by such member (or by an organization that such member directly represents)
- Cast a vote on nor participate in any matter that would provide any direct benefit to such member or the immediate family of such member
- Engage directly or indirectly in any business transaction or private arrangement for profit (including any third-party transactions) that develops from or is based upon the member's official title or authority on the board
- Participate in the negotiation of or decision to award contracts or grants, the certification of any eligible providers, or the selection of any one-stop (PA CareerLink®) operator with or for any entity in which the member has a financial or personal interest
- Use board equipment, supplies or properties for the member's own private gain or for any reason other than official designated purposes
- Represent or act as an agent for any private interest, either for compensation or not, in any transaction:
 - in which the board has a direct and substantial interest
 - which could be reasonably expected to result in a conflict between a private interest of the board member and his/her/their official board responsibility

Local workforce development board members (or specific entities represented by members) who participate in the development of contract specifications or standards are prohibited from receiving any direct financial benefit from any resulting contract. In addition, no corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, firm, enterprise, franchise, association, trust, foundation or other entity shall receive the contract if it would create a conflict of interest for the board member who participated in this manner.

Note: The local workforce development board shall adopt in its bylaws a conflict of interest policy meeting the minimum standards set forth in the state's conflict of interest document.

VIOLATIONS OF THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE

1. If, after an investigation, the board believes that this code has been violated, it may recommend to the Governor or the Chief Elected Official(s) of the local workforce development area that the individual who has violated the code be removed from board membership.
2. The Governor, or the Chief Elected Official(s) of the local workforce development area, has the authority to remove a member of the board for a violation of this code, even if the board has not made such a recommendation.
